

ADIRONDACK PARK INVASIVE PLANT PROGRAM
Adirondack Partnership for Regional Invasive Species Management

2017, Spring Partnership Meeting

The Adirondack Chapter of
The Nature Conservancy
8 Nature Way
Keene Valley, NY 12943

Thursday, April 27th, 2017
9:30 – 3:00

- 9:30 Welcome & Introductions
- 9:40 PRISM Report, Project Reports & Seasonal Priorities
- 11:00 Partner Roundtable Discussion
- 12:00 Lunch
- 12:45 Partner Roundtable Discussion Cont.
- 1:00 Guest Presentation: “Assessing Feasibility in Invasive Plant Management using Pre-Project Planning Tools” Dr. Jeff Corbin, Associate Professor, Union College
- 1:45 Guest Presentation: “Best Practices for Trailered Watercraft Decontamination to Prevent the Spread of Aquatic Invasive Species” Dr. David Wong, Aquatic Biologist, Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection
- 2:30 Discussion
- 3:00 Wrap-up & Depart

Important Dates

iMap/Aquatic Invasive Species Training	June 19 th (Darrin Freshwater Institute)
APIPP Aquatic Invasive Species Trainings	June 22 nd & 27 th (Paul Smith’s & Blue Mtn. Lake)
Boat Launch Steward Training	May 23 rd & 24 th (Paul Smith’s College)
NYS Invasive Species Awareness Week	July 19 th – 15 th

NY Invasive Species Monthly Calls, Last Wednesday of the month, 11:00 – 12:00