

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN:
Innovations in Invasive Species
Prevention, Early Detection, & Management Summit

Monday July 9th, 2018

Tannery Pond Community Center, North Creek

Join us for this one-day summit to learn about and discuss innovative solutions for addressing invasive species impacts in the Adirondacks and beyond! Free and open to the public! Register at <https://tinyurl.com/APIPPSummit2018>

Featuring Presentations By:

New York State Hemlock Initiative
The Nature Conservancy
US Forest Service
SUNY College of Environmental
Science & Forestry
US Department of Agriculture
National Aeronautics and Space
Administration
University of Massachusetts
CD<sup>3</sup> Boat Cleaning Systems
C-Map (Biobase)

Presentation Session Topics:

- Advancements in Biological Control & Host Resistance
- Advancements in Remote Sensing & New Technologies

More Information:

ADK Chapter of The Nature Conservancy
<https://tinyurl.com/TNCADKs>
Adirondack Park Invasive Plant Program
www.adkinvasives.com
Keep Invasive Species Out campaign
www.keepinvasivespeciesout.com

The Adirondack Park Invasive Plant Program is a partnership program of The Adirondack Chapter of The Nature Conservancy

