

ADIRONDACK PARK INVASIVE PLANT PROGRAM
Adirondack Partnership for Regional Invasive Species Management

2018, Spring Partnership Meeting

The Adirondack Chapter of
The Nature Conservancy
8 Nature Way
Keene Valley, NY 12943

Tuesday, April 24th, 2018
9:30 – 3:00

- 9:30 Welcome & Introductions
- 9:40 APIPP 20-year Anniversary Report, Winter Progress Reports, & Summer Work Plans
- 11:00 Partner Roundtable Discussion
- 12:00 Lunch (Provided Courtesy of APIPP)
- 12:45 Partner Roundtable Discussion Cont.
- 1:00 Guest Presentation: “Advancements in Water Chestnut Biological Control” - Wade Simmons, Graduate Student, Cornell University
- 1:45 Guest Presentation: “Asian Jumping Earthworms: Adirondack Distribution and Anticipated Impacts” – Paul Hetzler, Horticulture and Natural Resources Educator, Cornell Cooperative Extension of St. Lawrence County
- 2:30 Final Discussion
- 3:00 Wrap-up & Depart

Important Dates

Adirondack Watershed Institute Boat Launch Steward Training - Paul Smith’s College	May 22 nd & 23 rd
Aquatic Invasive Species Identification and Survey Training – Darrin Freshwater Inst.	June 19 th
Innovations in IS Prevention and Management Summit – Tannery Pond Comm. Center	July 9 th
NYS Invasive Species Awareness Week	July 8 th – 14 th
Cornell Invasive Species In-Service	Nov. 13 th – 15 th

NY Invasive Species Monthly Calls, Last Wednesday of the month, 11:00 – 12:00